

So you want to be a Baseball Official?

Officiating is a great way to give back to the sport you love, Baseball. As an official you can earn good money while being a positive role model to the youth in your local community. Officiating will allow you to grow personally and professionally, make quick decisions and resolve on the field conflicts. As an independent contractor, Orange Baseball Association, requires a professional demeanor on and off the field in an effort to provide the best quality product for our coaches players and fans. So, if you are up for the challenge..... Follow these steps!

1. Meet the following requirements:
 - a. Be 18 years of age or older.
 - b. Submit an application to the FHSAA at www.officials.fhsaa.org.
 - c. Pay your FHSAA dues at www.officials.fhsaa.org.
 - d. Submit an application to Orange Baseball

2. Comply with the Jessica Lunsford Act

This 2005 Act is a Florida Law designed to punish sex offenders and reduce their ability to re-offend. This simple fingerprint screening will allow you to officiate games for Orange Baseball and FHSAA. For more information please click here.

3. View the mandatory online rules video presentation

Everyone must watch the one hour Online rules presentation and take the short quiz at the end of the presentation. The times for the presentation will be posted at www.officials.fhsaa.org The video will be accessible at www.tech.fhsaa.org/eclassroom

4. Register and take the mandatory open or closed book rules examination
You must take a mandatory exam for Baseball. Schedules of the exams will be posted at www.officials.fhsaa.org . The testing site is located at www.testing.fhsaa.org
